VALERIE CAPRONI, United States District Judge:

WHEREAS on February 22, 2022, the Court ordered Jason Goodman, the sole shareholder and employee of Defendant MSD, to file a copy of the Court’s Order at Dkt. 156 (hereafter “the Order”) “in every lawsuit in which he or any company in which he is a majority shareholder is a party. This Order applies whether the lawsuit is in state court or federal court and whether Mr. Goodman or his company is represented or pro se. Should he fail to do so, that would be a contempt of this Court’s Order and would be punished accordingly;”

WHEREAS the Order does not specify how long Mr. Goodman can wait after filing a lawsuit to file a copy of the Order;

WHEREAS on October 31, 2023, Mr. Goodman filed a complaint in Goodman v. The City of New York & X Corp. et al, No. 23-CV-9648, and, to date, has failed to file a copy of the Order in that case;¹ and

¹ In his response to the Court’s Order to Show Cause, Mr. Goodman complains bitterly [Dkt. 183] that the Court issued the Order to Show Cause only after his nemesis, David George Sweigert, brought the newly-filed lawsuit to the attention of this Court in a filing that violated the Court’s prior admonition that Mr. Sweigert must cease making filings in this case, [Dkt. 183 at 1–2]. While Mr. Goodman has the chronology correct, how the Court was alerted to the shortcoming of its prior Order is really neither here nor there.

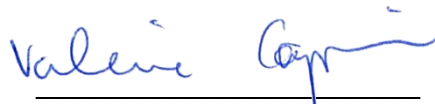

WHEREAS the Court has not found that Mr. Goodman violated the Order but upon sua sponte reconsideration, realizes that the Order should specify the point at which the Order must be filed.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the Court's prior Order is amended to require Mr. Goodman to file a copy of the Order in every lawsuit in which he or any company in which he is a majority shareholder is a party within one week of the filing of a new lawsuit. If Mr. Goodman has filed any lawsuits that are covered by the Order and has not yet filed the Order in any such case, he must file the Order in those cases not later than December 4, 2023. No later than December 5, 2023, Mr. Goodman must file a letter in this case certifying that he has done so. That letter must include the identity of the Court and the docket number of the case(s) in which he filed the Order. All of the Order's other requirements remain in effect.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to mail a copy of this Order to Jason Goodman at: 252 7th Avenue #6s, New York, NY 10001.

SO ORDERED.
